I have been informed by Agents of the NYO, who attended a school on 8/3/61 conducted by [REDACTED] of the Bureau Laboratory, in the latest developments in document examination, that the techniques discussed by [REDACTED] have proved very valuable in the handling of highly confidential sources of the NYO.

These Agents have stated that the instruction they received has helped decrease the area of risk considerably in the handling of these highly confidential sources.

We are most appreciative of the excellent instruction afforded by SA [REDACTED] and appreciate the Bureau's making his services available to us.

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

DATE: 11/28/56

Re memos, 11/7, 15/56 [REDACTED]

On 11/27/56 the writer discussed this matter with [REDACTED] of the Bureau. At that time [REDACTED] indicated that he felt that there were some men in the NYO who had had fairly recent training in [REDACTED]. He stated he would check his records and let me know.

On 11/28/56 [REDACTED] telephonically advised that the Bureau's records reflect that in September and October, 1956 SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] attended a special two-weeks school at the Bureau which covered just this phase of training in [REDACTED]. Under the circumstances [REDACTED] felt that before proceeding with any further training we should specifically ascertain whether these men are, in fact, capable of handling the work.

I then discussed with [REDACTED] his reaction to the suggestion that when additional personnel are trained they include a photographer on the theory they were less susceptible to training and on many occasions a photographer would be an adjunct to the [REDACTED] operation. [REDACTED] indicated he would look favorably upon this suggestion in the event the above named three Agents were not capable at the present time to handle [REDACTED] assignments. [REDACTED] did point out that if such were the case it would be an indication that their school was not successful.

NOTE: It is noted that none of the above three men are listed in our Special Book and same should be revised.

SUBJECT: ~~RE: [REDACTED]~~

Reference is made to my prior memo suggesting a photographic or stenographic personnel be afforded training.

On 11/15/56, the writer had occasion to require this ability on an emergency basis involving the investigation of the [REDACTED] who fled this country for the Soviet Union in possession of American atomic secrets. Particular incident involved an emergency use of the [REDACTED] technique. I examined a list of those agents who have had this training. Of the six listed, three indicated that they had not had any practice for from five to ten years with this technique. They were willing to make their services available, but expressed doubts as to their ability to do a satisfactory job after so long a period of inactivity.

The remaining three were not available in the office in time to be of assistance in this particular case. The writer does not know whether these remaining three would consider themselves sufficiently experienced to handle the assignment.

The agents who have indicated that lack of recent experience might preclude them from a successful operation are: SAS [REDACTED]

SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were not available for use on this assignment.

It is again requested that consideration be given to training someone in the photographic laboratory in this technique. It is believed by training such personnel, that the personnel will be available when necessary to utilize this technique. They would combine the technique with photographic ability, which is always a necessary requisite in any [REDACTED] matter.

JUNE

You are aware that [REDACTED] has been transferred to the Office of the Legal Attache, Bonn, Germany, and is expected to depart this office on or about 12/1/56, for Germany.

[REDACTED] has for many years served this office on [REDACTED] assignments. The writer is aware that agents of the office have received Bureau training in [REDACTED] and these agents are assigned to various squads throughout the office. The writer does not know the degree of proficiency of many of these agents to handle a [REDACTED] assignment.

It is suggested that you may wish to give consideration to having the Bureau train additional office personnel in [REDACTED]. It is further suggested that such training be afforded responsible clerical, stenographic or photographic personnel rather than agent personnel. In every [REDACTED] assignment there is required either photographic ability or stenographic ability to fulfill our responsibilities. If the [REDACTED] training was combined in this type of personnel it would enable the person handling the [REDACTED] assignment to complete the assignment rapidly and efficiently. Time is always of the essence in such assignments.

It is believed that this suggestion has the added merit that our experienced stenographic and photographic personnel have been with us many years and can be expected to be with us many more years, thus the value of the training afforded would not be lost, as it is when agent personnel is trained, by reason of the transfer of the agent personnel.

X-ray Equipment - Training

DATE: 11/20/56

SA [REDACTED] has advised me that he is interested in being trained in the use of x-ray equipment for possible assignment to this type of duty in the NYO.

As to background, SA [REDACTED] has held a Second Class Radiog. Telegraph and Telephone License. He has served as a monitoring officer for the Bureau in CW radio. He has had a course in General and Modern Physics while in college and has a degree in chemistry. He has also had many years of experience as a Bureau sound man.

Although I feel that he may be qualified for this type of training by the Bureau by reason of his background, as set out above, I should like to point out that his services as a sound man are very urgently needed and in view of the present trend in this type of activity, I feel that assigning him to x-ray training at this time would not serve to benefit the Bureau. Therefore, I do not recommend him for the x-ray equipment training.

X-ray Equipment - Training

SA  has advised me that he is interested in receiving the Bureau training in x-ray equipment for possible assignment of this type work in the NYO.

In looking into  background, I find that he has had training, while in the Army, in Morse Code and procedure, and also some training as a radio operator. He has worked in radio communications both in the Army and in the Bureau. He manifests an interest and aptitude in electrical appliances and equipment related to sound work. He has had some experience in sound work. He has his degree in Primary and Secondary Education from the University of Minnesota.

I do not feel that his background qualifies him for the x-ray training nor could we conveniently spare him from his present assignment on Section 4 without having a replacement. Therefore, I do not recommend him for this assignment.

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

At 11:30 A.M., 11/29/56, Assistant Director DONALD PARSONS of the Bureau telephonically contacted SA [REDACTED] concerning use of the X-ray machine [REDACTED] mc

PARSONS made reference to a prior conversation with SA [REDACTED] wherein he indicated a desire to train certain agents in NY in the use of this machine. He felt that his commitments at this time were such that this training could not be given at this particular moment. He wanted my views. I told him that NY, of course, recognizes the demands placed on the Laboratory and that if this training was not available at this time, we would accept it whenever it was available. PARSONS mentioned that there has not been too much travel by the Laboratory technicians on this project, and that certain electronic equipment was being marked in such a way that it will show up when photographed by the X-ray machine. ca

I gained the impression that PARSONS, at least at this time, desired to retain control of the X-ray machine in the Laboratory. This factor, together with the other commitments which preclude training of personnel here in NY, was such that I agreed we should defer that training until a date in the future. ca
